Anna:

Please find attached the exemplar we provided to Plaintiffs' counsel. We are again requesting that Defendants, who will inevitably be reading, analyzing and using the above material in connection with their case, to reimburse FXCM $30,000 in connection with its production costs.

With respect to the questions related to the draft declaration, we reiterate that these questions have not been posed by the Plaintiffs. Not only are the questions excessive and time-consuming (notwithstanding your assumptions), but they appear to be in the form of interrogatories, which is improper. It is costing my client every time we conduct these meet and confers and respond to questions pertinent to Defendants' case. Accordingly, we are again asking that Defendants reimburse FXCM for its attorneys' fees in connection with the time and expense that will be incurred in answering Defendants' interrogatories, as well as for our numerous meet and confers that have been conducted over the last few months by phone and in writing.

Happy to discuss.

Regards,

Jodi S. Tesser
